Billy Callahan is the Vice President of Technical Operations, Government Affairs, at TMGcore, Inc. in Plano, Texas, a tech start-up specializing in liquid immersion cooling for High Performance Computing. He has a BS of Mechanical Engineering from University of Memphis, Masters of Engineering Management from Old Dominion University, MS in National Security Strategy from National War College, and is a certified Project Management Professional. Previous roles include Technical Program Manager for Reactor Innovation at the National Reactor Innovation Center at Idaho National Laboratory and Senior Consultant with Ventus Executive Solutions, supporting the Navy Standard Missile Program Office. Prior to that, Billy spent 30 years in the Navy as both an enlisted nuclear Machinist Mate and submarine officer. Notable tours of duty include Executive Officer of USS ALEXANDRIA, a Los Angeles class attack submarine, Special Assistant to the Chief of Naval Operations, and Special Assistant to the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. When he isn't at work or helping his wife with chores at the barn, Billy enjoys tinkering with his classic Corvette or perfecting his BBQ skills. Prior to moving to Texas this summer, he co-owned a BBQ catering company with a friend in Northern Virginia.
